Dr. Maloney Elected Treasurer of AZ Society of Plastic Surgeons

TUCSON, AZ (March 16, 2011) – Dr. Christopher T. Maloney, Jr., M.D., has recently been elected Treasurer for the Arizona Society of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgeons, Inc., which is the state chapter of the American Society of Plastic Surgeons.

“It’s an honor and privilege to be elected to serve as Treasurer,” said Dr. Maloney, continuing, “The ASPS is one of the oldest and largest plastic surgery organizations in the world, and I look forward to working with my peers.”

The American Society of Plastic Surgeons is the largest plastic surgery specialty organization in the world. Founded in 1931, the society is composed of board-certified plastic surgeons who perform cosmetic and reconstructive surgery. The mission of ASPS is to advance quality care to plastic surgery patients by encouraging high standards of training, ethics, physician practice and research in plastic surgery. The society advocates for patient safety, such as requiring its members to operate in accredited surgical facilities that have passed rigorous external review of equipment and staffing. The society works in concert with the Plastic Surgery Educational Foundation, founded in 1948, which supports research, international volunteer programs and visiting professor programs.

Dr. Maloney is also actively involved in the Tucson community, having been recently elected to serve on the Homeowners Association Board of Directors for Tucson Country Club. A Tucson native, graduating from Salpointe Catholic High School in 1986, his hobbies include golf and riding horses on the Elkhorn and Los Charros Del Desierto rides. He is local member of the American Diabetes Association, an active member of the Centurions, a non-profit organization which raises money for local charitable causes, and a member of the Conquistadores.
